CS Seminar
専題討論

張耀文
Yao-Wen Chang
ywchang@cc.ee.ntu.edu.tw
http://cc.ee.ntu.edu.tw/~ywchang
Department of Electrical Engineering
National Taiwan University

Spring 2008

Administrative Matters

- Time/Location: Mondays 1:20--2:10pm; MD-231
- Instructor: Yao-Wen Chang
- E-mail: ywchang@cc.ee.ntu.edu.tw
- URL: http://cc.ee.ntu.edu.tw/~ywchang
- Office: BL-428
  (Tel) 3366-3556; (Fax) 2364-1972
- Office Hours: Thursdays 5--6pm or by appointment
- Course contents:
  - Research work presentations (preferably in English)
  - Industry talks
- You are allowed to switch to the EDA or DSP & Communication seminars with my approval
Administrative Matters (Cont’d)

- Grading:
  - At most two absences are allowed to pass this course unless with legitimate reasons (e.g., sickness with proof, absence for conferences)
    - Base score: 90 pts, +5 pts for each presentation, -10 pts for each absence
  - Those funded by the department/MOE/NSC to attend conferences abroad in the past year will be assigned for presentations
  - Every other volunteer presenter can be exempted from one more class

- Seminar schedule will be available at
  - http://cc.ee.ntu.edu.tw/~ywchang/Courses/Seminar08S/seminar08s.html
  - February 25: Prof. Hui-Hsien Chou of Iowa State Univ. on bridging computer and life sciences
  - March 3: Prof. Chris Chu of Iowa State Univ. on VLSI layout design automation

---

Why English Presentation?

資料來源: 天下雜誌, 1996年11月